

HOUSE AND LEISURE

THE PLEASURE OF LIVING HERE NOW

Chinoiserie chic

EASTERN ELEGANCE GETS A CONTEMPORARY UPDATE

MY OWN PRIVATE ISLAND
AN ESCAPE TO TROPICAL THANDA

THE GREEN LIGHT LESSONS FROM AN ECO-CONSCIOUS HOME

the new

GENERATION

THE COOLEST YOUNG CREATIVES THAT ARE DEFINING THEIR INDUSTRY

HOUSEANDLEISURE.CO.ZA
OCTOBER 2016
R38,00 (INCL VAT) Namibia
NS38.00 Other countries R33.33

NEIGHBOURHOOD WATCH
WHY LINDEN IS THE
SUBURB OF RIGHT NOW

A portrait of Adri van Zyl, a woman with short dark hair, wearing a grey turtleneck sweater. She is looking thoughtfully to the right with her hand near her chin. The background features a faint architectural floor plan with various labels like 'COFFEE SHOP' and 'RESTROOMS'.

ADRI VAN ZYL &

A portrait of Vincent Clery, a man with long, curly dark hair and a beard, wearing a white t-shirt. He is looking slightly to the left. The background is a white wall with a grid pattern of thin black lines.

THE INTERIOR DESIGN TEAM

'Eclectic and courageous' is how Adri and Vincent describe the work that they do at Atelier Interiors. 'I've wanted to be an interior designer since I was seven years old,' says Adri, who went out on her own after Vincent, an entrepreneur and writer, convinced her to 'flex her creativity'. Since then, the young couple, who opened the doors to their company in 2014 – two years after they were introduced by a mutual friend – have worked flat out, completing numerous interiors projects (both residential and commercial) and they can now put the names of some of South Africa's coolest brands, including Source, Pichulik and Mungo & Jemima, on their list of clients. What's most important to them, however, isn't the prestige of working for famed brands, but rather 'seeing our sometimes crazy ideas and designs come to life'. Look out for an upcoming collaboration between Atelier Interiors and Source, and their work on Famke's new flagship jewellery store. atelierinteriors.xyz

VINCENT CLERY